

Difficulties of fracture diagnosis & management in developing countries

POTA session DKOU 2017

Part A:

1. Simple treatment for a difficult fracture, Persian technique
Dr. kamrani
2. Acetabular fracture: high burden, inadequate number of trained surgeons
Dr. Aslani
3. How to perform osteosynthesis, without using C-Arm
Dr. Tavakoli
4. What makes surgeons of the developed countries different from those of the developing countries? Education, skills or...
Dr. Ebrahimpour

Part B

1. Advantages of the globalization: Iranian surgeons are touching the edge of orthopedics
Dr. Abolghasemian
2. Goal of fracture treatment; should it be exactly the same for the developed and the developing countries?
Drs. Moradi
3. How helpful would be to publish a journal with the scope of orthopedic trauma in the developing world?
Dr. Mortazavi
4. How to adapt an orthopedic guideline for the developing world.
Dr. Hasanzadeh

Part C

General discussion and the audience feedback of the session